

Haemonetics Research Grants Submission

To submit a protocol for consideration, please complete the application form along with the protocol and any supporting documentation through the Haemonetics Grants system at, <https://Haemonetics.medcompli.com>. Once you create a grant requestor login using your email, then select “Make a request” from the main page and select “Haemonetics Investigator-initiated trial proposal” from the drop-down list.

Additional details to be included in the Research Grant Submission:

- CV or biosketch of the Principal Investigator
- Study Protocol including:
 - Introduction – Brief description of problem, hypotheses and aims
 - Study PI and Study Site information (including the lead site and main PI as well as participating site(s) and other PIs, Co-PIs or Sub-Is, if applicable)
 - Study design, objectives and endpoints
 - Study population (inclusion/Exclusion Criteria, number of subjects, etc.)
 - Ethical and regulatory considerations (IRB/EC approval, informed consent, data protection, etc.)
 - Study procedures and assessments
 - Statistical considerations (sample size justification, statistical analysis plan, etc.)
 - References
- Other supporting information, if not covered in the Study Protocol:
 - Estimated Timeline
 - Total Budget and Requested Funding Amount